

I. Meetings

- A. The EAGG holds regular membership meetings on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month. Breakfast is from 730am to 745am. Our program for the day will start promptly at 745am and be finished by 845am. Members are encouraged to stay after the program to fellowship and network with one another.
- B. The format of our regular membership meetings is as follows:
  - 1. Welcome to membership
  - 2. Pledge and prayer
  - 3. Introduction of visitors
  - 4. General information
  - 5. Program/speaker for the day
  - 6. Lead sheets
  - 7. Closing remarks
- C. The EAGG Board of Directors will meet the first Tuesday of each month. The location and time of the meeting may vary however all board members will be notified ahead of time. At present we will meet at the current President's place of business at 745am.
- D. Social Functions are held on the 5th Tuesday in the months in which they occur throughout the year. Social gatherings provide a further opportunity to promote better understanding and closer association among members along with highlighting a members business. Members are encouraged to view this as important as regular membership and board meetings. Social functions will take place at the business location of one of the members. In the event a member does not volunteer their place we will meet in a neutral location. Members hosting a social will be reimbursed by the EAGG for food and beverage expenses up to $200.

II. Financial Matters

- A. Membership dues are $125 per quarter
- B. The Treasurer and President are the only members authorized to sign checks for EAGG
- C. The treasurer or an active member filling the category of CPA shall be responsible for preparing tax forms and other official financial documents.
- D. As a thank you, EAGG shall reimburse up to $15 for gifts presented to guest speakers.

III. Requirements for Active Members

- A. Attend all meetings unless urgent health or business emergencies prevent attendance. Members may not miss more than three meetings per quarter unless they are "excused" absences as determined by the board. It is each members responsibility to notify the board member who is chairing the membership committee that they will not be present and why prior to the meeting.
- B. Members unable to attend a meeting may have a substitute from their company take their place. The substitute must be an executive employee able to make decisions in place of the active member.

- C. Dues are due on the first day of each calendar quarter and considered late after the 10th day of each quarter.
- D. Each member shall report as quickly as practical to the membership any business information, unless confidential, that might enable members to acquire additional business opportunities.
- E. Each member shall refer and recommend the EAGG member to friends, family, customers, and business associates.
- F. Each member shall familiarize himself with the various businesses represented in the Association for the purpose of maximizing the number of recommendations that can be made.
- G. Members are expected to do programs for the membership as much as is allowed by the program committee.
- H. Members shall not engage the membership in political or religious discussions where it is not applicable to the topic at hand and where it is obvious that the member does not agree with a certain denomination or political party.
- I. Members shall hold no more than one classification.

IV. Programs

- A. Membership presentations
  - 1. Throughout the year members are expected to updated the membership with information relevant to their business and highlighting the qualities that differentiate their business from the competition.
  - 2. Presentations may go a minimum of 15 minutes or a maximum of 30 minutes
  - 3. The following is a list of some of the items that should be included in the presentation:
    - a. Well rehearsed and engaging presentation. It should be clear that the member is passionate about their work and what they can offer.
    - b. What makes your company different than the rest?
    - c. How long have you been in business?
    - d. What changes are occurring in your industry
    - e. Are you doing things in your business model such as marketing that could help other members run their business more effectively.
    - f. How can we help you? How can you help our customers, friends, family, etc..?
    - g. Tell us a little about you and how you got into your business. This is especially important on your first presentation and whenever we have new members.
    - h. Always leave room for questions!
- B. Guest Speakers
  - 1. Members are encouraged to notify the program committee chair of any person they believe would have a presentation the membership could benefit from.

2. While the guest speaker could end up as a member of EAGG, it is important they understand that they are present to be informative, not look for new business opportunities.
  3. Furthermore, the topic shall not be about a pet project, charity, religion, or a political party or candidate.
- C. Roundtable discussions and networking
1. From time to time EAGG will hold roundtable discussions. A member of the board usually the President or Vice President will lead and moderate the discussion. Members are expected not only to be present, but to participate in the discussion. Members of EAGG may be emailed a list of questions to work on ahead of time so that they are prepared for the roundtable discussion.
  2. In addition to roundtable discussions the membership will engage from time to time in networking events during regular meetings. Members will get one on one with each other with the intent of providing information regarding possible leads and discussion of business opportunities and development that will help one another.
